

Be bitten by the Arts bug

Singapore Arts Festival 2003
30 May – 22 June

www.singaporeartsfest.com

The Global Soul

TheatreWorks (Singapore)

World Premiere

One of the most influential figures of Asian contemporary theatre, director Ong Keng Sen embarks on his next production following the success of Search: Hamlet in Denmark. Inspired by Gautama Buddha and the musings of travel writer Pico Iyer, The Global Soul stars renowned artists from three continents, Min Tanaka (Japan), Charlotte Engelkes (Sweden) and Sophiatou (Nigeria). It embraces tales of Buddha, jet lag, airports, global currency, butoh, liyuan opera, and Korean court songs within a contemporary soundscape by Toru Yamanaka (Japan) of dumb type.

19 – 21 Jun • 8pm • Victoria Theatre
$52, $42, $32, $22, $16

www.theatreworks.org.sg

REVELATIONS

The Necessary Stage (Singapore)

World Premiere

REVELATIONS as told by The Necessary Stage explodes with a visual and narrative tapestry of stories, images, movement and soundscape culminating in an overarching theme of hope, salvation and redemption in seeming chaos. Created by Young Artist Award recipients Alvin Tan and Haresh Sharma, and Singapore theatre's enfant terrible Jeff Chen and Chong Tze Chien, a multi-sensory epic, REVELATIONS will be nothing less than prophetic.

Sponsored by Keppel Group

12 – 15 Jun • 8pm • Jubilee Hall • Additional Matinee on 14 Jun, 3pm
$42, $32, $22

www.necessary.org

Wei Khim

Othello

Meno fortas (Lithuania)

Led by Director Eimuntas Nekrosius, winner of numerous state awards in the arts, Meno fortas presents plays that exhibit strong visual imagery incorporating natural elements such as water, fire, metal and wood. Its interpretation of Shakespeare's Othello, a five-hour tour de force, has received wide critical acclaim.

Dusany Matejcek

"The shattering power of visual suggestion and the director's rare ability in a deep analysis of the text distinguishes the work of Nekrosius." – Il Giorno

(Performed in Lithuanian with English surtitles)

30 & 31 May • 7.30pm • Victoria Theatre
$52, $42, $32, $22

www.menofortas.lt

Organized by

Official Bank:

Official Magazine:

TIME

Official Radio Station:

