COMRADE MAYOR

A Modern Political Fairy Tale

Once upon a time, in an Asian city where people call each other comrades, there lives a powerful maverick Mayor who is hungry for foreign investments. To that city comes an ambitious Singapore ambassador, determined to make her government's stalled industrial park a success. Then the Mayor sues the Ambassador's brother, a hapless Singapore correspondent, who writes what the whole city only says in whispers: "The Mayor manipulates the city's courts." Add to that a horny Australian journalist who loves Asian hunks, a dissident seeking refuge in the Singapore embassy and the Mayor's fortune-teller, and the supposedly bound-to-win court case for the Mayor becomes an Asian, modern day fairy tale. But will anybody live happily-ever-after?

A tongue-in-cheek, humorous political satire by veteran playwright Russell Heng, directed by Tan Boon Hui. Featuring an all-male cast including Brendon Fernandez, David Leong, Gani Abdul Karim, Garrett Hoo, Harris Zaidi, Micheas Chan, Mitchell Leow and Rodney Oliveiro.
