FRIED RICE paradise

A spicy, mouth-watering dish garnished with colourful characters to taste.

Choo Bee Lean, owner of Fried Rice Paradise, a famous chain of restaurants, hopes to retire, but her daughters Nancy and Fancy are at loggerheads and refuse to run the business together.

Bee Lean sets up a contest to determine her successor and each daughter recruits friends to create the winning restaurant. The results, to say the least, are mind-boggling.

But her girls are just part of Bee Lean's problem; someone is blackmailing her to take control of Fried Rice Paradise. Who could it be? Girly Danker, Bee Lean's best mahjong kaki hooks up with a shady private detective, one Chow Kay Poh, to investigate.

The ensuing investigation and the zany, no-holds-barred competition between Nancy and Fancy lead to intrigue and staggering discoveries as each character, under heat, imbues Fried Rice Paradise with her own special flavour.
