"The vacuum cleaner became a monster we were dragging and pushing along.
We were all tuned to the same picture: a sort of Bulldog on his leash."

The "Embarquez" company are:

Virgule
(Christine Wurm)

Scarole
(Céline Châtelain)

... and Vincent Rouche, Director

Coquille
(Betty-Sylvie Didier)

Gina
(Corinne Lordier)

Iris
(Catherine Cretin)

Humour stripped of cheap circus tricks, a set reduced to its bare essentials, subtlety and excess all at once, this is clown acting of a new kind...
delicious and stunningly fresh.

Yet another stereotype to dispose of once and for all:
comedy (as cooking) is no male prerogative...

"That this show should appeal to an old man as much as to a child is something that makes me very happy"
(Betty)
