

THEATREWORKS presents

POP friction

By Najip Ali and Mohd Noor Sarman

Celebrating the movement of life, youth and freedom. Dance theatre crosses the boundaries of convention and arrives at the crossroads of the hip and new. Pop icon of the Nineties meets 1995's Young Artist Award for Dance in a rare partnership combining their very different choreographic styles where flawless classical technique fuses with the explosive energy of pop. Russel Wong. Song and Kelly. Photographer to the stars meets hot new fashion designers from London in an exciting collaboration as they bring their unique brands of creative design into the world of theatre. Uncompromising and in your face. Spontaneous yet disciplined. Intense and Powerful.

Pop Friction. Pure adrenalin. A whole new movement.
