Asakusa
A Japan Foundation Asia Center Production

Based on Shakespeare's greatest tragedy, the story is about a young woman who plots to steal the throne and the kingdom from her father. The passionate conflict between father and eldest daughter ends in much bloodshed and loss of innocent lives.

Asakusa premiered in Tokyo in September 1997 to much critical acclaim. It will play at the Hong Kong Arts Festival in January 1999, and proceed to the Festival of Perth in February 1999. This unique production features a world class cast from China, Japan, Indonesia, Thailand, Malaysia and Singapore in a magical Asian reworking. Boasting stunning visuals, great music and exciting choreography, the production is directed by TheatreWorks Artistic Director Ong Keng Sen and written by Rio Kishida.

Asian Tour 1999

- Hong Kong Arts Festival 22-23 January
- Singapore 28-31 January
- Jakarta 5-7 February
- Festival of Perth 13-18 February

The touring of the Singapore cast is supported by an International Touring Grant of the National Arts Council.
