CRIME PASSION REALITY RETOLD

---

A woman has been raped but the story of the crime when retold again and again is different each time. Rashomon, which has been made into a film by renowned director Akira Kurosawa, explores not only the role of the traditional Japanese woman in society but also the frailty of human perception. Directed by Lim Siau Chong and William Teo, the play has Lim Kay Tong appearing as the Bandit, Lim Kay Siu as the Samurai and Christine Lim as the Ravished Wife.

Drama Centre, Fort Canning Rise, May 7, 8, 9, 10, 11
(8 pm) May 10 (2.30 pm)

Tickets at $8, $10, $12 from Central Booking Office (Victoria Theatre), Tangs Superstore and Centrepont Booking Counter from April 7.
