

LAB REPORT 6

doing the write thing!

FREE nightly readings at the black box 11 - 14 may 1994 8.00pm (different shows every night)

new and raw - all never before seen! be the first to catch the excitement! an exclusive invitation for you to witness the unveiling of a whole new age of local stage writing!

featuring...

new works by OVIDIA YU! RUSSELL HENG! and MORE!

introducina...

new TALENTS! new PLAYS! new BLOOD! new IDEAS!

the theatreworks writers' lab...

is a unique self help writing programme developed and organised by theatreworks to help new and upcoming, as well as established writers develop new writing for the stage, to help them develop, dramatised readings of their works are organised on a regular basis, these readings are called lab reports, at these readings, their works are read by experienced actors, through them, the playwrights get feedback from the audience, actors and director.

for more information about the programme, call 338 4077 please note that reservation of places by phone may be required for some readings as space is limited.

the writers' lab and lab report 6 are organised by theatreworks and sponsored by singapore press holdings