

THEATREWORKS

FOUR YOUNG MEN AND

Dangerous
A GIRL
Beautiful GRASP
THEIR DESTINIES fragile
IN 1950s
Suggestive
SINGAPORE...

SCORPION ORCHID

Singapore Festival of Arts 1994 presents

A play by Lloyd Fernando
Directed by Krishen Jit and Lok Meng Chue
Featuring Lim Kay Siu, Khairul Anwar,
T. Sasitharan, Vernon Emaung
and Nora Samosir

25 JUNE - 3 JULY 1994, 8 pm, Victoria Theatre
WITH MATINEES ON 26 JUNE & 2 JULY, 2.30 pm
$10, $16, $26, $36

For the first time, the racial chaos which shook Singapore in the 1950s will be put directly and dramatically on stage.

Explicit and daring, this thought-provoking play traces the friendship of four young men and their tragic choices as Singapore took its crucial first step towards independence.

A play which will be long remembered and much talked about.

To make sure you get your ticket, call TheatreWorks' priority hotline: 3386735 (for 1-3 July only)
OR fax your order to 3388297.

All tickets are available from Ticketcharge counters.
Ticketcharge hotline: 2962929

★

Free TALKS at the BLACKBOX

Krishen Jit & Lok Meng Chue: Grasping the Scorpion's Sting: directorial choices 4 June

Lloyd Fernando: Living with Scorpions: a writer's tale 11 June

Kwa Chong Guan: Dangerous Playthings: the reality of Scorpion Orchid 18 June

ALL TALKS BEGIN AT 3 PM. LIMITED TO 80 PER TALK. CALL MOBILE AT 3384277 FOR RESERVATIONS.

Name: _____ Tel (R): _____ (O): _____

Address: _____

Number of tickets: _____ $10 / 16 / 26 / 36 + $3 (handling fee) Date: _____

VISA / Mastercard / AMEX No: _____ Expiry: _____

Name on Card: _____ Cheque No: _____

TheatreWorks: The Black Box, Fort Canning Centre, Cox Terrace, Fort Canning Park, 50617.
The Singapore Festival of Arts 1994 is organised by the National Arts Council

Pioneer sponsors

STUDIO

Glaxo

Official hotel

Scorpion Orchid is sponsored by Sincere Watch Ltd

THEATREWORKS