TAN KHENG HUA

CLAIRE WONG

Featuring original music written & performed by Rosita Ng

Ellen Toh, her sister Grace and Ellen's spouse, Lesley. Three women on the edge of illness, anger, fear and death.

Three women facing faith, family and God without their fences.

Three women brought together by love, hope and tragedy.

This is a story that exists within all families.

The bonds of family reel us in, wrap us up in knots and sometimes repel us. They push us in directions we cannot always control. A death in the family and a phonecall from Grace propels her sister, Ellen Toh, a strong-willed thirty-something lawyer, back into the midst of emotional complications she thought she had escaped many years ago.

Claire Wong, well-known theatre actress returns to the stage! She has been described by the international press including The Times, Asahi Shimbun and The Independent as... brilliant...

> especially memorable and poignant... extraordinary expressiveness...

compelling...vivid...beautiful...

Claire Wong is a splendid actress!

She joins Tan Kheng Hua, voted one of Singapore's most stylish women and described by the press as a wiry pint sized dynamo... especially polished... exceptionally good... breathtaking!

In Eleanor Wong's new play. Award winning playwright Wong is back in her element with this witty and touching work after her runaway hit of 1993, Mergers and Accusations.
