Synopses

SINGAPORE YOUNG DRAMATISTS AWARD 2003

COLOURS

Tay Woo Chiao

In times of trouble, will we stand together? An accident on the MRT leads to eight people trapped. Only one could return to safety. Who is it? Who gets to choose the one to live?

OUR FATHER

Calvin Liang & Maureen Yeo

Eric, living in the shadow of his father, Ben's legacy of power and prestige, is unable to free himself from his father's destructive affection. When it threatens the one thing Eric cannot afford to lose, he is forced to make a more drastic, final decision.

TOXIC

Calvin Liang & Maureen Yeo

Gavin, intensely gifted but socially maladjusted, finds fulfillment in chemistry and companionship in his only friend. Tentative experiments give way to something more sinister as Gavin becomes less and less able to recognize the value of human life.

DRIVING HOME

Wong Chen Seong

Home is where the heart is. It's not a matter of where you live - it's a matter of who you love. You'll never get lost driving home to your heart - and no matter how many detours you have to make, you'll always be guided by the signs pointing home.

24 HOURS PLAYWRITING COMPETITION

HOME & STATION

Chua Lay Hong Jocelyn

This play explores the destruction of humanity and culture in the name of modernization and takes place simultaneously at 2 places, where Xin and Jay both encounter obstacles. Will the two characters finally re-unite?

THE BEAUTIFUL ART OF DOING NOTHING

Owyong Munfei Rannie

A man seeks the ideal lifestyle on a getaway holiday only to discover that living is not an easy art. To appreciate its beauty, he must first come to terms with its imperfections.

BECKETT'S LAST STAND

Marcus Lim

What if Sam Beckett had never been stabbed outside a café in Paris, if he had never seen war, if he had remained in Ireland, would we have ever heard of him?

ODDS

Benzie Dio

In a promotion interview, Steve's boss grills him with a barrage of demanding questions which Steve has no answers for. What are the odds that Steve will get the job?
