24-Hour Playwriting Competition

Now into its thirteenth year, the competition is an annual highlight for aspiring playwrights from all walks of life. In collaboration with TheatreWorks, participants will write and incorporate 5 given stimuli into their play within 24 hours in unique and engaging settings. The only competition of its kind, the competition focuses on the lighter and fun side of playwriting, and hopes to make playwriting and creativity a major part of people's lives.
