Presents

The Diary of Alice

Created and performed by

Joavien Ng (Singapore) & Paloma Calle (Spain)

Set within the dining hall of the Baba House, an elegant Peranakan residence, artists Joavien Ng and Paloma Calle create an interactive performance built upon fragments of identity and random narrative encounters, with the palpable risk of turning tipsy at the end of it all.

The Diary of Alice is a playful artistic exploration of 'Alice' and the fascinating universe of identities—fact, fiction or otherwise—that the name holds. 'Alice' becomes an open canvas for each audience-guest to scribble his/her wildest imagination, desire, memory and aspiration of who 'Alice' can be.

About the Baba House

Once the ancestral home of a Straits Chinese family, NUS Baba House is now a heritage house. It facilitates appreciation and study of the Straits Chinese history and culture, and encourages research in cultural hybridity, conservation, architectural traditions and urban changes.
