A TheatreWorks Writers' Lab Community Project in partnership with the South East Community Development Council

Maslindah and Jamal are married.
They laugh, they cry, they fight, and they're in love.
They are missing a child.

Jenny is the best friend to the couple.
She is satisfactorily unhappy.
She is missing a little something in life.
She decides to have a baby.

Is it really about the baby? Or about the people wanting it?

Since 2008, TheatreWorks has forged a dynamic partnership with South East CDC in organising its Writers' Lab programmes for the community's benefit. The 24-Hour Playwriting Competition takes place each year at unconventional sites and sees the participation of aspiring writers from all walks of life, young and senior. Of Babies (not really) and People marks the third edition of the Writers' Lab Community Project in showcasing new writing reflecting the heart and soul of Singaporeans, through a tour of public spaces within the South East District! The other two works were the very popular "SERUNDING" (2011/2012) and "SAYING GRACE" (2012)

The TheatreWorks Writers' Lab is the longest-running developmental programme for playwrights in Singapore. It has nurtured generations of illustrious writers and presented many seminal Singapore plays since its inception in 1990.

Performed in English with some Bahasa Melayu
Approximately 45 minutes
There will be a Post-show discussion after each performance
