Marco Polo is the winning play of the 24-Hour Playwriting
Competition 2013 (Youth Category)

A TheatreWorks Writers' Lab Community Project in partnership with the South East Community Development Council

Marco Polo is about two blind friends who reacquainted after death. They quickly discover that they are both still blind and proceed to attempt to figure if they ended up in Heaven or Hell. Amidst the uncertainty, they begin to understand what it is to be lonesome, fearful and utterly lost. The friends attempt to recapture the emotions invested in the lives of the living and within oneself. Eventually, it is about hope, and above love.

Writing & Community

The TheatreWorks Writing & Community Programme is a process-based programme which evolved from the TheatreWorks Writers' Lab that began in 1990.

Firstly, it identifies new potential playwrights from the community through its annual 24-Hour Playwriting Competition. Next, the winning playwrights are nurtured by theatre professionals to develop their scripts into productions. These productions are then staged and brought to the community through the programme's annual Performance Tour series primarily in South East District. TheatreWorks has partnered the South East CDC in this unique programme since 2008.
