Growing up Chindian in Singapore has not been easy for Anika Lee. Her parents, Cassandra and Lee, have fought hard their whole life to protect their kids from racial tensions both in their family and out. At 21, Anika has cultivated a fire in her that allows her to navigate the difficulties of being mixed. Now a teacher-in-training, she is whole, and ready to fight for what she believes in. She even has her eye on a guy at the job she loves...

Mixed scrutinises a racial divide that is supposedly cracked, bringing to light fragments that still have the power to cut. Mixed is a play about loss, it's also about love – it's about falling. And it's about getting back up.

Performed in English | Approximately 45 minutes
There will be a post-show dialogue after each performance.
