"A profoundly absorbing and moving show"

—The Scotsman, Scotland

"Jaw-dropping display of both pure physical comedy and magic"

—The List, Glasgow

At work and at home, Joe Kilter has his routine. Some people think Joe is obsessive. Joe would prefer not to be thought of at all. A change in his routine turns his world askew. His life is no longer his own, his house is knocked sideways and he's off his game. Joe Kilter is off-kilter. Feeling increasingly isolated, his life feels impossible until he is forced to exist in darkness.

Special Thanks to:

Diversity is embraced and celebrated at TheatreWorks and our works represent that. We are interested in presenting innovative, interesting and boundary-pushing work, which Singapore audiences do not usually have a chance to watch and be exposed to.

TheatreWorks is an independent, non-profit performance company based in Singapore with an aim to present innovative contemporary performance and artistic expressions that offer Singapore audiences uncommon alternatives. TheatreWorks believes in working across disciplines and cultures, and it aims to be the bridge between alternative artistic expressions and audiences in Singapore.
