BECAUSE I LOVE YOU
2018 Season

TheatreWorks BECAUSE I LOVE YOU Season continues with The Reunification Of The Two Koreas by Joël Pommerat, one of the most exciting voices in French Theatre today and founder of the prestigious Compagnie Louis Brouillard.

As part of a new international initiative, TheatreWorks embarks on a journey of commissioning translations of international playscripts into English for world premiere in Singapore. In this instance, Pommerat's script in French has been specifically translated into English for the first time in a process facilitated by TheatreWorks. TheatreWorks presents this first English language production of Reunification with Théâtre Olympia - Centre dramatique national de Tours (CDNT*). Singapore actors will also perform this brand new English translation in France at Théâtre Olympia Tours and MC93 Bobigny, Paris, after the run in Singapore.

A patchwork of multiple short scenes, Reunification explores situations where relationships are challenged.

A woman wants a divorce because there was never any love between her and her husband. On her wedding day a bride discovers her fiancé had an affair with each of her four sisters. Two best friends get into a savage fight because one of them recalls their first encounter. A prostitute bargains down her services to hook a client.

What are those bonds that lead us to love, hate, help, betray, care, flee, fight, abuse or lie?

Be drawn into a maze where appeased relations between humans seem as primal, desirable and quixotic as the reunification of the two Koreas.
